The new administration at Albemarle brought with it a fresh spirit and a bold attitude. The theme was "Albemarle High School — A School for Everyone — Nothing Less Than the Best." Our new principal, Mr. Raines, and our new associate principal, Mrs. Harris, were instrumental in helping AHS become the best school possible.

The excitement which lingered in the summer air had various effects on different students. Whether basking in the sun at Chris Greene and various beaches, or just staying home to watch the favorite soaps, summer proved to be a fulfilling break for all.

As the summer came to a close, students put away their suntan lotions, part-time jobs, and even summer romances. They began focusing their attention on sports, club activities, and classes so they could make 1984-85 the best year ever.

The friends that we made during these four years in high school become our constant companions both inside and outside of school. We spent our SAPs, before school, school time, and weekends with our classmates. Most of our fondest memories of high school would be not of the school itself but of the people with whom we shared the school.

Extracurricular activities provided students with many opportunities to express themselves. Some students looked upon them as a way to become the well-rounded students that colleges look for. Others simply enjoyed the challenge and friendship that accompanied these activities. All in all, extracurricular activities helped students cope with their every day pressures.

Whether it was Spanish, math, English, or physics, students sat in classrooms to learn whatever was being taught. Some students liked to sit in desks and listen to teachers lecture while others would rather have gym or home economics to give themselves a break from quietly sitting still in the classrooms. In any case, it was always nice to have a friend in class with you.

SENIORS

'85 — "Nothing less than the best"

Not only did AHS start the new school year with new administration, it also had a new breed of seniors. The most school-spirited class ever, the Class of '85, set a superb example for the underclassmen to follow. The seniors showed that they could beat the underclassmen at anything. They out-cheered everyone else at pep rallies and sporting events and came out in full force for all school functions.

Senior officers were: President, Tanya Lee; Vice-President, Patrick Wood; Secretary, Mary Vermillion and Treasurer, Miriam Hirsch. The officers were dedicated to making crucial decisions which would affect the whole senior class. The Class of '85 will be remembered for its tremendous dedication and school spirit.

1. Super nerd, Donald Bryce, goofs off in computer class. 2. Senior class officers: Mary Vermillion, secretary; Miriam Hirsch, treasurer; Patrick Wood, vice president; and Tanya Lee, president. 3. Getting better all of the time

At 3:20, seniors were finally released from their sixth period class. Having gone their separate ways, some rushed home to prepare themselves for work, while others remained at school to participate in sports. The athletes enjoyed competing in various ways. Whether it was passing a football, jumping a hurdle, or dribbling the ball to score, they all put forth their best efforts to achieve their goals.

Many students were also interested in other after school activities such as drama, debate or numerous clubs. Some clubs included dance, horseback riding, and political organizations. Clubs, such as the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, one of Albemarle's largest clubs, contributed to help improve school spirit and provide fund-raising activities as well as promote a better understanding of each other.

Although the seniors at AHS shared different responsibilities and interests, they all strove to reach one main objective: to be "Nothing less than the BEST"!!!

'85's guests

This year we had four exchange students at AHS: Nicolas Danigo from France; Torsten Kopp from Germany; Agustin Alonso from Spain and Stefan Pertl from Austria. In addition to these exchange students who were in the AFS and EF programs, we welcomed Anna and Pontus Modeer from Sweden and Dina Bar-Yaacov from Israel who had moved here recently with their families. The students remarked on some of the differences here in America. "I had never heard of French Toast until I came to America," Danigo, from France, says. He also complained that American parties were too short.

The students were asked how AHS was different from their schools. Dina remarked that in Israel, the teachers change classes, not the students. There are more school hours here than in Germany and Torsten says, "I thought that since there are more school hours, we'd have less homework." Agustin thinks that American classes are very easy compared to classes in Spain, and Anna, from Sweden, was shocked at all the rules at AHS.

With exchange students at AHS, we had a chance to learn about foreign schools just by asking the students. All of them seemed excited to belong to AHS and they all added a lot to our school.

Special interest classes fill schedules

Besides regular core classes, elective and special interest classes played a big part in seniors' schedules. Some of the more popular classes were foreign languages and business classes, both of which were important for college preparation. Some of the fine arts classes offered were choir, art, crafts, band, and drama. These allowed seniors to exercise their own individual talents and these talents were often displayed throughout the year with frequent musical, dramatical, and art productions and exhibitions.

The reasons seniors took these "special" classes varied. Some simply took them to take up the required number of electives. Other students tried to meet the requirements of the colleges to which they wanted to apply and some actually began preparation for their majors. Although the reasons behind taking these special talent classes varied, the outcome was the same: Seniors had a chance to excel in their talent areas or to learn about new talents.

More privileges for 1984-85

This 1984-85 school year was going to be the best for everyone! Our new principal and associate principal, Mr. Raines and Mrs. Harris, were going all out this year for the graduating class of '85. The administration had worked to give the seniors a few more privileges besides the senior bell and senior parking. Senior lunch passes and a senior lounge were being considered as possibilities. Mr. Raines encouraged spirit week and all school-related activities. Mrs. Harris awarded the first spirit stick to the seniors for having the most spirit during our CHS pep rally. Our thanks to Mr. Raines and to Mrs. Harris for promoting a very successful year.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Juniors show hard work

The Junior class, with Lillian Clemeña as class president, experienced a very exciting and challenging year. New ideas for fund raisers were developed in order to raise money for the prom. The Juniors also worked hard to achieve the best possible scores on the SATs and to receive good grades for college preparation. The hard work and enthusiasm of the class of '86 made this a truly successful year.

Class rings

Almost every student wanted to buy a class ring. It was something everyone would keep forever to remind them of their high school days. Class rings were ordered in September. There were many styles and colors of stones from which to choose. When they were delivered in November, students hurried to receive them so they could start the turning tradition. This year juniors had their rings turned 86 times and the person who turned it last received a kiss. The guys who bought rings hated to part with them so soon since it is tradition to let your girlfriend wear your ring. Many parents warned their sons not to lend the expensive class rings since many are never returned. Years later these rings would serve to remind everyone of the days at A.H.S.

Importance of year

This year was, scholastically, the most important year for college-bound Juniors. For most students the junior year was one of the hardest. Many classes, such as history, science, mathematics, English, and a foreign language were required for graduation and college entrance. Students worked hard to attain the best possible grades. Juniors took PSATs in the fall to prepare them for the SATs in the spring. They also had a chance to qualify for the National Merit Scholarship. All in all, the junior year was the most important and the busiest year for most students. The juniors this year worked hard to make it the best ever.

Taking the SATs

A common interest among many Albe-marle students, especially Juniors, was pre-paring for college. The Scholastic Aptitude Tests was required when applying for college. This made the test very popular. At eight-thirty on Saturday mornings, students could be found at AHS taking SAT's. This test consisted of Math and English. After much hard work and dedication, students found out that the SATs weren't so much of a burden, but merely a preparation for the future.

The Prom at its best

The Junior Class excelled to make the 1985 Prom the best ever. The fund raising for the Prom was almost as much fun as the Prom itself. Whether it was getting your picture taken with Santa Claus, buying a carnation for a dear friend, or receiving mistletoe along with a kiss, the earned money was happily contributed to the future dance. Students learned from working with these fund raising activities that putting on a prom at a school the size of Albemarle was not an easy task and demanded much hard work.

Sophomores look into future

The Sophomores, no longer the babies of the school, attempted to make this a successful and enjoyable year. They carefully selected classes as they began to realize the importance of academics. Sophomores also looked forward to taking driver's education when they became fifteen years and eight months old. The students worked hard to achieve good grades, succeed in sports, and participate in fun activities.

Testing for College

Beginning in their sophomore year, Albemarle students began the drudgery of taking various scholastics tests. Sophomores began with taking the NEDT test. The NEDT was designed to show students' strengths and weaknesses in different areas. Next they suffered through competency tests. The upcoming three years held even more competencies for them. These included SRAs, Preliminary SATs, and SATs. Most important of these standardized tests was probably the SAT because it helped decide which college many of the students would attend. Many of these SAT test takers chose to take theirs over to see if they could improve their scores. Some even took classes to help these scores. Achievement and ACT tests came after SATs and were designed to place up-coming college students in appropriate college classes.

Prom fund raisers

Fund raising activities were used by many clubs and classes. Groups such as debate and band raised much needed money. The most popular fund raiser was candy sales. Everything from Bike's candy to Gummy Bears was sold. Students spent thousands of dollars on candy this year, thus consuming many sweets. Aside from junk food, however, the band sold citrus fruit and pizza. Students helped to support many organizations by purchasing the fund-raisers.

New lunch Schedule

The AHS faculty had much discussion and controversy over whether there should be two or three lunches. Finally, it was decided that there would be two 45 minutes lunches instead of three 30 minute lunches. The students of AHS wanted a break from their long classes and hard school work. The classes were shortened and the students seemed to be much happier and pleased with the faculty's decision. This seemed to make the students, ready to go to their classes after lunch and be more prepared because the students were able to have a break; otherwise they wouldn't have. This also allowed more time for make-up work. Students could get help from teachers.

Many students used their SAP periods for a variety of activities. As you walked out on the breezeway, a familiar sight would be students studying for a test for their next class or just socializing with their friends. Some unlucky students had to serve their SAP for their teachers because of too many tardies or other "crime" which were punishable by the same means. SAP was a welcome break for all AHS students and was used in various ways.

Freshmen experience a change

The Freshmen class showed signs of apprehension during the first few days of school. Soon, however, they became active in the SCA, sports, and clubs. The Freshmen found that they had to work much harder to achieve good grades in high school than they did in middle school. Teachers loaded them with harder assignments and more homework. By the end of the year, the Freshmen were as much a part of the school as the Seniors, and they contributed greatly to its success.

These floors are as hard as they look!

The Breezeway is a very popular place during SAP and lunch.

This year's Freshmen class was one of the most spirited that Albemarle had ever seen. The Freshmen started out the year by placing only a few points out of second in the Homecoming Spirit Week competition. The Freshmen then advanced to capture first place in the annual Thanksgiving food drive. Their reward for the community and school achievement was a movie after mid-term exams. The Freshmen class promised to build class spirit at Albemarle and to be in constant competition for the Spirit Stick.

Back to school apprehension

There is always a bit of apprehension. During the first few days of school, freshmen wandered around the halls in confusion and amazement. Only people who had been freshmen knew what it was like to be a freshman. Many freshmen stated that throughout the year there were so many changes. As the year progressed, though, they became more relaxed and more involved in activities, games, and pep rallies. Sap's allowed them time to mingle and enjoy meeting new people. One big change for most was the increase in the amount of homework. Middle school and high school homework loads were two different things. By the end of the first semester, freshmen all seemed to be doing very well. When exams came around, they seemed very prepared. In the long run, by the end of the year, they turned out to be a very important part of Albemarle High School. The freshman year had prepared them for the following years at A.H.S.

Freshmen, as well as Sophomores, were required to pass physical education and health. Many students enjoyed P.E. classes, although others found P.E. and health more difficult. Students learned the techniques of football, handball, basketball, and volleyball. Health classes studied vital information such as what to do in a disaster, life saving, and family life. The freshmen, in most cases looked forward to another year of P.E., a year when they could expand skills already learned. Most students looked forward to this time as a time to release some of the stored energy from hours of sitting in desks.

CHS and WAHS wins highlight season

The AHS Varsity football team posted a 4-6 record this year to negate the past two 0-10 seasons. Coach Bob Rimmer carried the team emotionally throughout the season. He took the job of head coach suddenly at the end of the summer. His staff of coaches raised the spirits of the players to an overwhelming high. Coaches Clyde Hoy, Brian Grainer, Dick Lage, and Dan Ward helped Coach Rimmer build a close relationship between players and coaches.

Albemarle's Varsity football team posted several big wins this season. AHS beat rival Charlottesville twice, and had victories over Western and Fauquier. The team captains were John Rose, Walter Smith, and Richard Lage. The MVP was Walter Smith, who led the team in scoring. Albemarle hoped to have a winning season next year with many returning players.

The Junior Varsity football team also had a good season in 1984. The team was coached by Gary Shepard and only lost to CHS. They finished the season with a 5-1 record. Hopefully, they will carry this winning tradition on to the Varsity football team.

The Ninth Grade football team, coached by Doug Seldon, ended the season with a record of 4-2. This showed the outstanding success of a team composed mostly of First year Football players.

Volleyball wins district

Under the coaching of Bonnie Nielson, the Albemarle Varsity Volleyball team again had an outstanding season. The Lady Patriots ended their season with a 11-1 record in the district and a 15-3 record overall. The highlights of the season were winning the Western District title and competing in the Northwestern Regional semi-finals. Also, the team placed second in the Franklin County Tournament, the highest seeding ever accomplished by an Albemarle Volleyball team. Captains for this years team were Seniors Donna Pippin, Mary Vermillion, and Page Newman. These girls helped lead the way for the great season. Placing on the First Team All-District were senior spiker Annabel Thompson, senior setter Mary Vermillion, and senior setter-spiker Page Newman. Receiving second team honors were junior Denise Bickley and sophomore setter-spiker Emily Vermillion. Honorable mention went to senior spiker Donna Pippin. MVP for the 1984-85 season went to Mary Vermillion and the Best Sportsmanship honor went to Donna Pippin. The J.V. Volleyball team was still an unofficial sport but under the coaching of Carole Vidrine-Wright, the team had a record of 5-2. The J.V. team provided an opportunity for freshmen and sophomores to strengthen their skills for future years on Varsity. The award for the most dedicated J.V. player went to Tammi Shifflet.

Both Cross Country teams take district title

The 1984 AHS Cross Country teams were the most successful that Albemarle had seen in recent years. Coached by Dan Monahan and Lance Weisend, both teams finished the season with winning records. The boys' team won the District Championship, placed second in the Regionals and seventh in the State. The team had great success with the running of Alan Hershey, Peter Salters, Andy Crowder, Tom McKeel, and Jeff Guerrant. Albemarle took first place in both the WAHS Invitational and the Woodberry Invitational. The girls' team did equally well by winning the Lynchburg Invitational. The girls' captured the District Championship to end their season. They were paced by Jennifer Lear and Roni Hanger.

1. Allen Hershey leads the pack in this race. 2. Receiving their numbers, Diana Kost, and William Murray prepare to start the race. 3. Cross Country members listen to Coach Weisend before the meet. 4. Taking the run in stride, Kathy Watkins paces herself. 5. Showing the pain, Andy Crowder pushes on.

Hockey wins District

With excellent coaching by Ms. Dottie Bohannon, Albemarle Girls' Field Hockey team had a successful 1984 year finishing with 10-1-1 record for the season. For the District title they played Charlottesville twice winning first 4-0 then 1-0. Then they strove for the Regional title playing North Stafford and finished the season losing Regionals 2-0. All of these accomplishments took great effort and support from the team as a whole and not just individuals. The MVP for defense was Andrea Jones and the offensive MVP was Gretchen Fudala. These two contributed a lot to the winning season. The JV team also had a successful season with the help of Ms. Meg Hutchins. Their ending record for the season was 8-1-1. They were able to establish such an undefeatable record with the help of Cynthia Elledge who won MVP. Not only was the MVP important, but teamwork also proved to be rewarding.

Tennis posts winning record

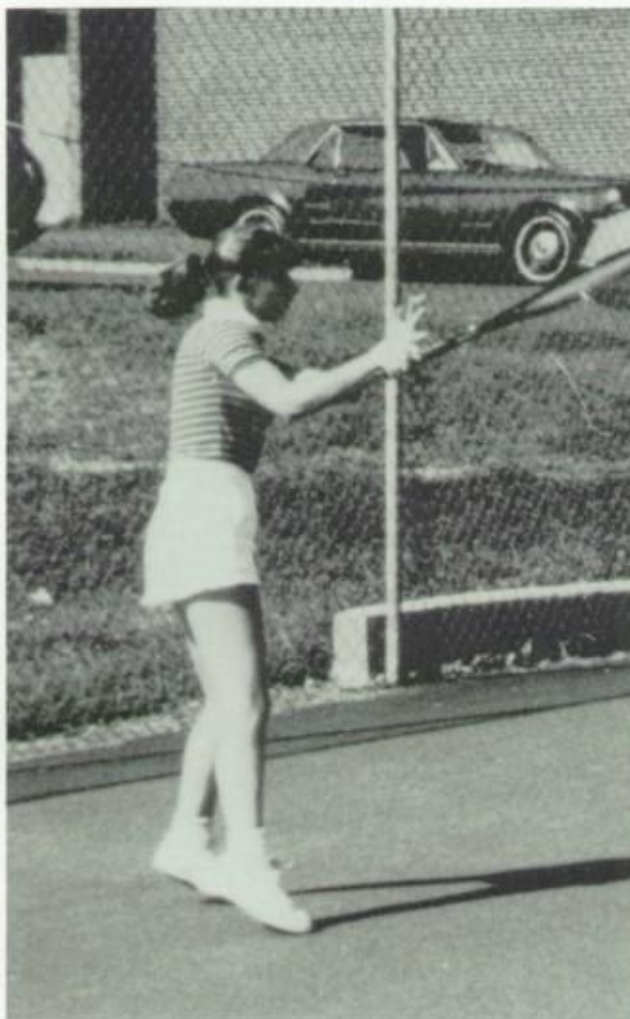

The AHS Girls' Tennis team once again had a winning record of 8-4 for the season. First year coach, Peggy Redmond lead the team throughout the year with both her coaching and friendship. The team was lead by seniors Heather Knight and Sharron Warren in both singles and doubles play. Although the team will loose many seniors, talented underclassmen including Maggie Wingate, Ellen Niehaus, and Michelle Bouchard provide a good start for next year's team.

Golfers play new course

The Albemarle Golf team, coached by Ralph Harrison, had a winning regular season in 1984. The team finished 4th in the District defeating crosstown rivals, Charlottesville and Western Albemarle. Outstanding players were Billy Morrow, Wes Sobott, Brian Wayland, and Tony Good who qualified for regionals. A new golf course, UVA's newly built Birdwood golf course, replaced the old Keswick country club course. Golf provided the participants with a good hobby to keep long after school has ended.

Lots to cheer for

The Albemarle cheerleaders had a lot to cheer for in the '84-'85 sports seasons. Both the teams they cheered for and the cheerleaders excelled. Beginning in June and continuing through July, the cheerleaders practiced each week for their trip to a National Cheerleaders' Association summer camp held at Old Dominion University. Coached by Beth Barr, Kim Payne, Janna Olsen, and Pam Price, all three squads made a good showing at camp.

During the school year from September until March, the cheerleaders spent many hours a week dedicated to their sport. In November, stuntman tryouts were held and four new members were added to the varsity squad. All in all the hard work paid off and the '84-'85 season proved to be enjoyable as well as very successful.

A better beat

The Marching Band got off to one of its best starts ever this year. Though the band was younger than groups in the past, it showed a spirit of pride and dedication that helped add to its success throughout the year. After two long weeks of practice before school began, the band was ready to flash its award-winning show during each of the home football games. The band not only performed during these halftime shows but also competed in field show and parade competitions across the state.

Lead by drum major Chris Tesack, the band showed well in all of its competitions including first place in the Charlottesville Calvalcade. For their pride and never-ending dedication, we salute the band and its hard-working leaders.

Unsung heroes

The Student Trainer Club was an integral part of the AHS sports program. Sports medicine had a necessary and well-staffed program.

The club consisted of seniors Val Hughes, Warren McCann, Kathy Ward, and Terilynne Wright; juniors Cheri Gibbs and Tracey Thorsen and freshmen Marclare Lang and Taunya Payne. Ellen Hansen, a graduate student at U. Va. served as Assistant Trainer. Ms. McBride was the Head Athletic Trainer and sponsor of the club.

The athletic training program was a very demanding yet rewarding commitment. Their season started with football, continued through the winter season, and finished with the spring sports. Trainers attended all practices, scrimmages, and games. Work included administering first aid procedures, establishing rehab programs, and making evaluation and referrals. Student trainers took classes in Emergency Medical Care and had the opportunity to become certified in First Aid and C.P.R.

The student trainers, the so-called "unsung heroes", took a back seat at all athletic events but were always there before, and many times long after, the crowds had gone. The student trainer program indeed was a great service to AHS.

Patriots win District

The 1984-85 AHS Varsity Basketball team was one of the most successful in Patriot history. The team, composed mostly of seniors — nine of twelve players were seniors, posted a 17-6 record winning the district regular season title and going on to regional competition. The Patriots had to play an additional game with G.W. Danville because of a regular season tie. The Patriots advanced with the district title to the first round of regionals. Albemarle hosted the Patriots of Patrick Henry of Roanoke and were defeated to end a hard schedule. Coach Rich Lyons will be sad to lose his two high scorers, Tim Kenney and Tony Good, but juniors David Hall, Gary Tibbs, and Darin Lynch leave hope for the future.

During this season, the J.V. Basketball team worked very hard on team play and defensive skills. The team had a record of 8-10 and posted district wins against G.W. Danville, Charlottesville, and Amherst. Due to the loss of seniors on the varsity team, most of these players look forward to playing on the varsity team. First year coach Mr. Clutter looks forward to coaching upcoming ninth graders.

The Ninth Grade team was the most successful of all the teams this season. The team was undefeated with a record of 16-0. The team won the AHS Invitational with wins over Western Albemarle and Woodberry Forest. The record of 16-0 was the best record in the school's history. Coach Garnett had many good players including Stacey Fitzgerald, Rodney Carter, and Chris Dezio. The team's great record leaves hope for AHS basketball in the next four years.

The Lady Patriots finished the '84-'85 season with a 17-6 record. Led by seniors Heather Knight, Wendy Miller, and Junior Ellen Neihaus, the team finished second in the district behind G.W. Danville both in the regular season and in the tournament. Sophomores Maggie Wingate and Stacey Williamson contributed greatly to the success of the team this year and will be starters next year. The team concluded the season with a loss to Woodbridge in the regionals, but overall had a very successful season. Coach Ely will miss his graduating seniors but hopes to have a good team next year.

The J.V. team ended the season with a 6-6 record and established a building block for the varsity squad. The team posted wins over CHS, Heritage, and Trinity. The team finished the season strong, winning three out of the last four games. Coaches Kirk and Shannon offered leadership and poise that encouraged competition and sportsmanship.

Seniors lead

The 1985 PEER staff would like to dedicate this page to all of the seniors who played a spring sport. These athletes played without cheerleaders and their games were attended by few spectators. Even though only a few people chose to observe their efforts, these seniors were the leaders of their teams. They worked hard to encourage their teammates to achieve the best possible record.

These seniors will be sadly missed by their teams and by the school. The PEER staff would like to thank these seniors for their contribution to the school and to wish them the best of luck in the future.

No hurdle too high

The 1984-85 Albemarle Indoor Track team was one of the most successful in recent years. The girls' team won the district championship and sent several girls to the regional and state meets. After placing second in the region, Vicki Kost, Roxanne Martin, Sandra Morris, Lynn Thomas, Gloria Blagman, Dedra Hughes, and Sophia Brown represented AHS in the state competition.

The boys' team finished third in the district, second in the region, and eleventh in the state. Team members who qualified for the state were Walter Smith, Kevin Jones, Mike Burns, Chris Cavanaugh, Greg Stokes, Andy Crowder, Alan Hershey, Billy Morrow, George Walker, Tony Hinley, Frankie Yates, and Larry Henderson.

National honors were awarded to Walter Smith, second in the nation in hurdles, and to the mile relay team of Kevin Jones, Chris Cavanaugh, Mike Burns, and Frankie Yates, ranked in the top twenty in the United States at the Seventh Eastern States Championship.

The seniors on the team will be greatly missed since the team was composed in large part of seniors. Future teams will have to work hard to achieve the respect that the 1984-85 Indoor Track team received.

Tumbling for success

The Albemarle Gymnastics team, coached by Pam Grainer, was excellent again this year. The team raised money for new uniforms by selling candy bars. They also participated during halftime at a basketball game. Girls who competed in regionals were Young Shin An, Heather Butler, Jenny Cooper, Rachael Henry, and Nicole Pharr. AHS lost Senior captains Young Shin An and Nicole Pharr but looked forward to success the following year.

Students show school spirit

The 1984-85 classes were full of spirit during Homecoming Spirit week. Seniors had "Nerd Day" which was quite a success. Some of them really looked like Nerds! Junior Day was "Cowboys and Indians". The Sophomore class really showed its spirit by coming tacky on "Tacky Day". Then the Freshman class came dressed as Kindergarten students on Thursday. Then came the big class spirit day during which all classes participated. Freshmen wore yellow and Sophomores wore green. The Juniors wore blue and Seniors wore Albemarle's main color, red. Friday afternoon classes were shortened for the annual pep rally. Students came together to show their appreciation to the football team and to show their support. Another event, after school, was the powderpuff football game. Girls played football and guys became the cheerleaders. The Seniors were the overall winners of Spirit Week. After all games were played, all of the students headed for the football field and the kickoff for the Homecoming game.

Students celebrate roaring 20's

After spirit week, on Saturday, October 27, 1984, many Albemarle students got dressed up and arrived at the gym for the Homecoming Dance. The "Roaring Twenties" was the theme. For the first time ever, the dance was held in Null Gym. The scene was set with streamers, a car by Bentley, and various refreshments. Unfortunately, the band did not arrive, but Mr. Carey posed as a disc jockey and saved the night by playing various songs. Thanks to the Homecoming Committee, led by Julie Burbach, the Homecoming dance of 1984 was enjoyed by AHS students and was a success.

'85 Court is sophisticated

Friday, October 26 was the night of the Homecoming game. During halftime the Homecoming Court was announced. The Freshmen this year were Shanna Baton, Laura Williams, and Lisa Lambert. Sophomores representatives were Michelle Dunbar, Rashel Hammond, and Shanda Howard. Junior representatives were Lillian Clemena, Jenny Cooper, and Claire Weaver. Seniors representatives were Kelly Gerbert, Tina Maslyk, Tanya Lee, Annabel Thompson, Jeanie Wheby, Mary Vermillion, Herbie Davis, Arthur Brown, Steve DeMasters, John Rose, Kevin Jones, and Bryston Giannini. Albemarle's Homecoming King and Queen this year were Herbie Davis and Kelley Gerbert. The King and Queen were honored. They cut the Homecoming cake and danced to a song which had been reserved especially for them. Though the theme of Homecoming was "The Roaring Twenties", youthful beauty was the order of the weekend with this Homecoming Court.

Mimes perform for all

In September tryouts were held for the Mime Troupe and sixteen members were chosen from a large group of sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Mrs. Hull, the sponsor, organized performances in the Charlottesville area for the troupe. The mimes' first performance was during Creative Arts Week in the fall. In December, the troupe performed a holiday show for four elementary and middle schools. The mimes also performed at First Night Virginia on New Year's Eve. Shows for hospitals, schools, community organizations, and a spring performance at AHS are included in the Mime Troupe's itinerary.

Drama presents "Harvey"

The Drama Department presented a production of "Harvey", the Pulitzer Prize winning comic fantasy by Mary Chase. It was directed by Ms. Martha Scott, AHS drama teacher. The group presented "Harvey" on Friday, November 30 and Saturday, December 1 in the AHS auditorium. Tim Booth played Elwood P. Dowd who has an invisible friend who is a six foot and 1/2 inch white rabbit. Elwood's sister, Veta, was played by Nora Romine and her daughter, Myrtle Mae was played by Tiki Murray. James McNew played Dr. William B. Chumley, head of the sanitarium, and his assistants Dr. Lyman Sanderson, Nurse Kelly, and Wilson were played by Patrick Iachetta, Julie Burbach, and David Williams. Ricardo Nunez portrayed Judge Omar Gaffney, Becky Webster was Mrs. Chauvenet, and Anne Gotham played Dr. Chumley's wife, Betty. David Phillips played the taxi driver, E.J. Lofgren. The student director for the production was Retta Wilson. Judging from the audience's reactions, it was the best show in many years at Albemarle!

Creativity marks week

This year Creative Arts week was a big success. Both the French and Spanish departments set aside a day for special events. French students watched and participated in plays written by French authors. The Spanish Department, on the other hand, organized a "Spanish Town" which consisted of a restaurant, a jail (for students who failed to speak Spanish), a Spanish fortune teller, and a market. Marilyn Fantino, chairman of the English Department, organized several new contests. The contests included song writing and radio T.V. announcing, sponsored by WCHV. A lip sync contest was also offered. The purpose of this week was to expose AHS students to as many forms of art as possible.

1. Tom Estes, Karen Clark, Michelle Mitchell, and Shanna Batten perform a French skit during Creative Arts Week. 2. The GoGo's, alias Beth Eley, Jeanie Wheby, and Sarah Roberts, perform during the Lip Sync Contest. 3. Jimmy Gibson talks to Psychology and Drama classes about the psychology of magic. 4. The French classes' plays are a success because of dedicated students like Tiki Murray and Alyssa Uecker. 5. Robert Soffian describes his techniques to a drama class. 6. There were many student-made French village scenes along the Foreign Language wing. 7. Tad Adams, Tony Good, and David Williams walk away with the Lip Sync contest. 8. Christmas spirit abounds

Along with the closing of 1984 came the excitement of knowing that Christmas break was just around the corner. Everyone's spirits were aroused with the help of the SCA and Junior class.

The three days before break were named Christmas Spirit Week. Pictures with Santa were taken all three days. On Wednesday, students could sing a Christmas carol to any SCA member and receive candy. Thursday students dressed as their favorite Christmas character. Friday was a day which kept everyone on their toes. The door decorating contest winners were announced, students dressed in red and green, Juniors brought flowers to the Patriots, and the SCA filled stockings with candy during sixth period.

1. Julie Landel delivers Mike Shand some Christmas cheer in his computer class. 2. Mickey Watson delivers Christmas carnations for the SCA. 3. Valentine's Day is for best friends

Once again the Valentine's Day Thing was sponsored by the SCA. This year not only carnations, but also red roses could be sent to sweethearts and friends. There were also the traditional valentines and songs. The songs featured this year were "Longer", "Heaven", "The Rose", "Down in Arkansas", and "All I Need". With balloons and vases of flowers wandering through the halls, the specialness of the holiday touched everyone.

1. Patrick Wood, Kate Whitfield, and April Lassiter serenade someone's sweetheart with the song "Heaven". 2. Marta Coble picks up some flowers in the office that she received from her sweetheart. 3. Stealing a balloon from Darren Kennon, Beth Yager stops to give the cameraman a smile. 4. During Valentine's Day, Annabel Thompson takes a break from delivering flowers to chat with Herbie Ankrom and Kerry Hall. 5. Presenting Glenn Gravelle with a flower from his girlfriend, David Zimmerman is one of the many SCA members who made Valentine's Day a success. 6. Herbie Davis receives the song "All I Need" from an admirer. The singers were Tanya Lee, Donna Young, Shannon Taylor, and Ricky Reed. 7. "Longer", one of the songs that could be bought on Valentine's Day, is sung by Kelly Williams, Christine Richardson, and Nancy Rosson. 8. Mrs. Edson's class is entertained by Margot Huskey, Julie Burbach, Tim Booth, and Retta Wilson singing "Down in Arkansas". 9. While John Harris is taking a test, Tanya Lee decides to give him a greeting. 10. Coach Grainer receives a valentine hug from Sheila Bernard, while Tina Caldwell waits in line for her turn.

AHS represented well

A new type of high school competition, academic competition, arrived this year to provide additional fun and excitement of a more intellectual variety.

The new Academic Teams represented Albemarle in competitions among the Western District high schools and Western Albemarle High School.

Following a quick recall, Trivial Pursuit-type format, the teams' skills in math, history, English, and science were tested.

Sponsored by Dr. Larrick and Mrs. Vaughan, the teams provided recognition and were an added incentive for Albemarle's outstanding students.

All of this year's honor recipients should be thanked for their participation in their individual categories, and for representing Albemarle successfully.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Peer — The Best

After many hours of dedication and preparation, the 1984-85 yearbook staff was successful in another year of hard work. Working weekends and holidays, the Peer Staff was able to accomplish everything it strove for. Mrs. Stanley and Mrs. Hughes gave their constant attention to the staff and the annual. Yearbook editors and other students worked hard and turned out a successful yearbook. Mr. Ergler helped tremendously with his dedication to the photographers. The students developed almost all of the pictures the staff used. Drawing layouts, writing and typing copy, writing captions, and taking pictures were many of the jobs the staff learned to do. The Peer Staff wants to express its gratitude to Mr. Cunningham for all of his help and contributions that made our yearbook, "Nothing Less than the Best".

Patriot Press — best news

During the 1984-85 school year, the newspaper kept the same name. This marked the first time in three years that this had happened.

Chief-editor Tony Lascano and business editor Linda Braithwaite did what most editors do and strove for improvements. As in the past, the first issue was free to the student body to encourage them to buy subscriptions. Once again this year, two of the highlights were the Christmas Wishes and the Senior Wills. We thank the members of the "Patriot Press" for keeping us informed.

Watching and writing

During club period, students in the Film Critics Club watched different movies and discussed their opinions about the films. Also, movies were shown after school for anyone who wanted to watch them. Anyone who loves movies should participate in this club.

Albermarle's writers got a chance to display their talents by having works published in "The Lantern". Many short stories and poems were printed in this magazine four times a year. The sponsor was Mr. Keller, who also teaches a creative writing class.

Media at its best

The Quill and Camera Club was comprised of a small group of people who were interested in Journalism. They expanded their ability to write journalism.

The Media Center has been fortunate in having some outstanding aides this year. These aides have done a variety of jobs: checking passes, checking book in and out, shuttling decks, films, and movie projectors back and forth, laminating teaching materials plus many other library related jobs. These aides have been a great help in making the Media Center a well organized working facility for both staff and students.

The Debate team had always been successful and this year was no exception. Leaders Mr. McDonald and Captain Bob Blue lead the team to victory many times. The team won many competitions throughout the state including 1st place at George Mason University and 1st and 2nd places at Wilson Memorial High School. The team also won the Washington Forensics League Tournament. Many honors were brought to Albemarle High School by Mr. McDonald and his Debate team.

The Space Mice Club, in its second year, has been a great success. Mainly involved in science related activities, this club gives students an outlet to experiment with different things.

Active FBLA

Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) was a national organization with many local chapters. The Albemarle chapter did many things this year to carry out its goals. The club sent officers to the Southern Regional Leadership conference in Nashville, Tennessee. A needy family was adopted at Christmas time. Another activity was a coffee for the faculty during vocational education week. Community business leaders spoke at club meetings. Members were sent to the Regional FBLA contest. Also, the club visited a modern business office. This year's officers were as follows: Randy Wrenn — President; Missy Boland — Vice-President; Tracy Kirby — Secretary; and Cindy Nelson — Treasurer.

To a better Future

FHA is a national organization which promotes personal, family and community development. The group is celebrating its 40th anniversary with the theme "The Future Touch . . . Now". The Albemarle Chapter is currently stressing community action projects which benefit such organizations as Hearthstone House, CRC and local nursing homes.

Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA) is designed to complement, supplement, and strengthen the instructional program. The DECA program of work includes activities related to DE class work, district meetings, participation in community projects, and competitive events. The Marketing program studies the field of marketing. The program allows students to combine classroom instruction with on-the-job training, which is closely supervised by the teacher/coordinator. Graduates from this program have gone on to receive business administration or business related degrees from college, or have moved straight into local management training positions upon graduation from high school.

Vocational clubs abound

The AIASA, the Albemarle Industrial Student Association, helps prepare its members for a possible career in the industrial field. The club is sponsored by Mr. Smith.

The Future Farmers of America, the FFA, is a national organization that familiarizes its members with different aspects of farm competitions like livestock judging, tractor driving and parliamentary procedure.

VICA was sponsored again by Mr. Henry. They explored the working world for problems that might arise. It helped its members prepare for the problems they will face when applying for jobs.

Tech offers variety

The Ca-Tech Center is very busy this year teaching Albemarle and Charlottesville students. Albemarle students take courses in fields in which they plan to work. For example cosmetology, mechanics, electricity, auto body and commercial food service are some classes offered. The center provided the students with practical skills through on-the-job training.

Thespians successful

Thespian Troupe 500 of Albemarle High School was very active this fall. On October 10, 1984, they inducted new members, bringing the troupe total to 36. On November 9, 10, and 11, six troupe members attended the State Thespian Conference at Great Bridge High School in Virginia Beach and won first place in the State Duet Acting competition. This year's winners were Tim Booth and Julie Burbach, President and Vice-President of the troupe. Albemarle's Michelle Rickborn won second place in the state in solo acting with an original monologue.

The National Honor Society, sponsored by Mrs. Fulcher, was involved in many activities this year. To show their great appreciation for the new administration, they instigated a petition of gratitude. They began a tutoring service for Albemarle students and also participated in fund raising activities such as a bake sale and the sale of school spirit buttons. In addition, they held their annual Red Cross Bloodmobile. The important qualifications for being a member in the society were Scholarship, Service, Leadership, and Character. This year's officers were President — Karen VanDerVeer, Vice-President — Heather Knight, Secretary — Corinne Depret-Guillaume, and Treasurer — Victoria Kost. The Spanish Honor Society, lead by Mrs. Ferree and Mrs. Strickler, again this year sponsored a child. Members also worked towards raising money for various activities. Officers for the 1984-85 school year were President — Susan Hall, Vice-President — Page Newman, Secretary — Rose Mary Beard, and Treasurec — Tracy Wright. Sponsored by Madame Federman, the French Honor Society participated in many out of school activities. In addition to singing at a local nursing home, Riverdale, they also traveled to Washington, D.C. to see a French play at Constitutional Hall and to hear "The Voice of America" at the Health and Human Service building. The officers this year were President — Tiki Murray, Vice-President — Bob Blue, Secretary — Corinne Depret-Guillaume, and Treasurer — Heather Knight.

Language clubs

French carolers tried to bring a little Christmas cheer to patients of the Towers and Riverside on December 17 by singing traditional French Christmas Songs. On December 10, members went to Washington, D.C. to visit the "Voice of America" and hear several world wide foreign language broadcasts. They also attended "Le Petit Prince" at Constitution Hall and the Degas exhibit in the East Wing of the National Galleries.

More languages

The Latin Club once again had a great year. Sponsored by Dr. David Larrick, the club went to the Junior Classical League Convention in Norfolk. They were the 15th largest delegation out of 92 schools and won 7 first places. The club has collected trophies for Certamen throughout Virginia. They also held fund raisers for leukemia victims, Latin Night for parents, and plan a picnic for June. Most important of all was club participation in the Latin Exam in March.

The Spanish Club attracted members from all grades, also. The only requisite for the club was that Spanish be a regular academic course. The members were exposed to Spanish traditions and culture, in addition to Spanish games.

Choirs entertain many

Concert Choir and Women's Chorus participated in many activities throughout the year. With Mrs. Bansleben directing the choir, there were many concerts, a school Christmas Concert, a Christmas dinner concert for parents and friends, one concert at Fashion Square Mall, and one for a nursing home. In the spring the choir presented its "Spring Madness" show which had the theme of "American Pop". There were many competitions throughout the year such as the Longwood Festival and Regional and State Choir.

Music and sports

The Volleyball Club was once again sponsored by Ms. Nielson, the A.H.S. volleyball coach. The club's purpose was to teach the fundamental techniques of power volleyball. Each club period was spent in competitive matches between club members. Officers this year were Mary Vermillion, President; Pam Dix, Vice President; and Emily Vermillion, Secretary-Treasurer.

1984 was welcomed by the Rock Album Critics Club as their second year of existence. Throughout the year members wrote reviews of various recent albums for their newspaper, "Face the Music". The newspaper, including articles and cartoons designed by members, was sold to raise funds for the club. This money was used to attend several concerts and to invite local bands to perform at the school. Ms. Merkle, club sponsor, and club members are looking forward to another year.

Symphonic Bands I and II were again directed by Elmer F. Sampson. The marching band attended many competitions, played at home football games, and held several concerts this year. These activities gave the band the opportunity to display its talents. The Symphonic bands sold many items to raise money for various activities. They sold fruit, pizza kits, and cheese and sausage. Enrollment in the Symphonic bands has increased dramatically this year. The students took pride in their talent and worked hard to make this the best area band.

Something for everyone

Thick and Thin was a health related club sponsored by Mrs. Stark. Club members discussed nutrition and other good health practices. Though club membership was small, many could benefit from topics discussed. Even those who weren't too thick or too thin needed wise nutritional habits and good health practices.

The Arts and Crafts Club, sponsored by art teacher Mrs. Adams, offered a creative outlet for students during club period. The mental anxiety of math and English was pushed aside for a little while and creative juices were allowed to flow.

Christian fellowship Club, sponsored by Mrs. Bibb and Mrs. Browning, met during club period. Students shared experiences and discussions were held.

Challenging the mind

The Chess Club, sponsored by Robert Macdonald, started out a great year by defeating Fork Union Military Academy. During Club meetings the competitive members tried out new moves on their opponents. The team then tried these moves out on Fork Union, Tandem, Louisa, and Heritage Christian.

Members of the Psychic Club felt very positive about their club. President, Relana Pinkerton, helped organize the guest speakers who came to share new ideas with the club. During the meeting, members discovered their own special psychic abilities and experimented with activities such as describing persons through their personal objects.

This year one of the most popular clubs was the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Sponsors Mr. Larry Johnson and Mrs. Anita Jenkins helped to make FCA the best club ever. Whether it was a tailgate at every home game or collecting money for the needy in walk-a-thons, members proved to be successful. To help manage the club, officers, President Doug Perkins, Vice President John Harman, Secretary Connie Roberts, and Treasurer Michelle Canada worked harder than ever. The FCA officers started a new program during lunch where you could learn about the Bible while eating.

1. Mr. Johnson tells Steve DeMasters he can't go to the bathroom. 2. Mr. Johnson loves John Harman's outfit. 3. Cheryl Smith and John Harman talk before an FCA meeting. 4. Billy Morrow is thinking about someone else while Kelly Mason tries to be noticed. 5. Connie Roberts, Tina Caldwell, Sheila Bernard, and Darren McCauley pay no attention to Mr. Johnson. 6. FCA members chat at a tailgate before the Homecoming game.

Sports clubs provide fun

The Ski Club, one of the largest clubs, was sponsored by Mr. Foutz and Mrs. Garland. In order to join, students had to pay eight dollar dues. This made various ski trips available for participation. During club meetings, activities consisted of speakers and even video tapes of skiers. The Lacrosse Club was another popular club. Sponsored by Coach Shepard, the officers were President — Richard Harrington, Vice-President — Richard Lage, Secretary — Rees Frescoln, and Treasurer — Ric Westervelt. Members sold candy in order to raise money for the girls and boys Lacrosse teams and were part of the intramural programs. The Lacrosse Club also participated in a blue and white game in which the alumni were present and held a spring Social activity.

To better athletes

The Wrestling Club, a new sports club, was sponsored by Coach Hoy. He hoped for it to become a school sponsored team. This year they competed in matches as a team with schools such as Western Albemarle and Charlottesville. Coach Hoy felt he had enough guys willing to participate as a team.

The Riding Club had a new sponsor, Mimi Hirsch, who has made the riding club very successful. This year the Riding Club gave pony rides, bake sales and, of course, gone riding.

Politics at A.H.S.

The Model U.N. Club, sponsored by Mr. Weaver, had an exciting and interesting year. Members attended conventions at the University of Virginia and in New York where they represented Lybia. At these conventions, they followed U.N. procedural rules and created resolutions.

The '84 Presidential election provided increased activities for the Teenage Republicans working the phone bank, going on literature drops, helping at the Court House, working the polls on Election Day, and celebrating at the Victory Party where they were interviewed by the media.

The Teen Democrats were also politically active. They discussed the key issues in the Presidential election. They also helped in the election.

To better involvement

The Key Club, sponsored by Mrs. Strickler, performed many, many school and community services. The club hosted the fall blood bank, helped with daycare centers at local elementary schools, and went Christmas caroling at nursing homes.

The International Exchange Club, sponsored by Ms. Dyer, offered the possibility for members to visit foreign countries or to host foreign students. Speakers from foreign countries spoke to the students about life overseas.

The Ecology Club, sponsored by Mr. Ergler, enjoyed studying certain aspects of nature. The students watched films, and the club offered members the opportunity to hike in the mountains.

Government for all

The SCA has been very active this year in student events. They organized and arranged all clubs and made sure they had sponsors. Their biggest responsibility of the year was Homecoming. Spirit week, the powder-puff football game, half-time activities and the Homecoming Dance were a few events surrounding Homecoming. They also conducted a food drive in December. In February they once again conducted the Valentine Day fund raiser in which flowers, songs, poems, and roses were sent to a loved one. They continued the selling of donuts during SAP to help get new things for the students and school and also aid for programs such as wrestling, lacrosse, and the newspaper.

ACADEMICS

Nothing but the best

The 1984-85 school year was a time of beginnings at Albemarle High School. Our new principal, William Raines, brought a different kind of leadership to us when he replaced the retired Ben F. Hurt. During the summer months before any students came back to school, Mr. Raines and Mrs. Sharon Harris, our new associate principal, began working to plan new goals and priorities. Mr. Raines brought with him two new phrases that seemed to summarize his goals for the school year: "Nothing less than the Best" and "AHS — a school for everyone". Throughout the year, administration, faculty, and students were all encouraged to work toward these goals.

With an experienced staff, these goals were even easier to reach. Our assistant principals, John Anderson, John Sessoms, and Charlie Lackey, possessed a great part of that experience which made these beginnings run smoothly. All involved worked toward the goals of creating a feeling of excellence and of raising the expectations of students, faculty, and administration. A new sense of unity between the student body and the faculty as well as an over-all spirit of cooperation was felt. Everyone strove to accomplish his own personal goals in addition to the goals of the school.

With the leadership of our new principal and a new feeling of school spirit, this year was a complete success. With these new ideas, goals, and principles, the future looks bright for Albemarle High School.

Guidance for all

The Guidance Department at Albemarle High School helped all students again this year. The addition of Mr. Eckholm added a new dimension — another male in the department. Freshmen and seniors benefited most from contact with their counselors. Those in the freshman class needed help with scheduling and adjusting to a new, larger school. Seniors needed the counselors to help them plan their futures. Would it be college or what? Counselors provided much valuable information. Sophomores and juniors also used guidance services for class changes, the ever important SAT's and moral support. Guidance often provided a listening ear for students in all grades who could not seem to find anyone else.

The perfect 10's

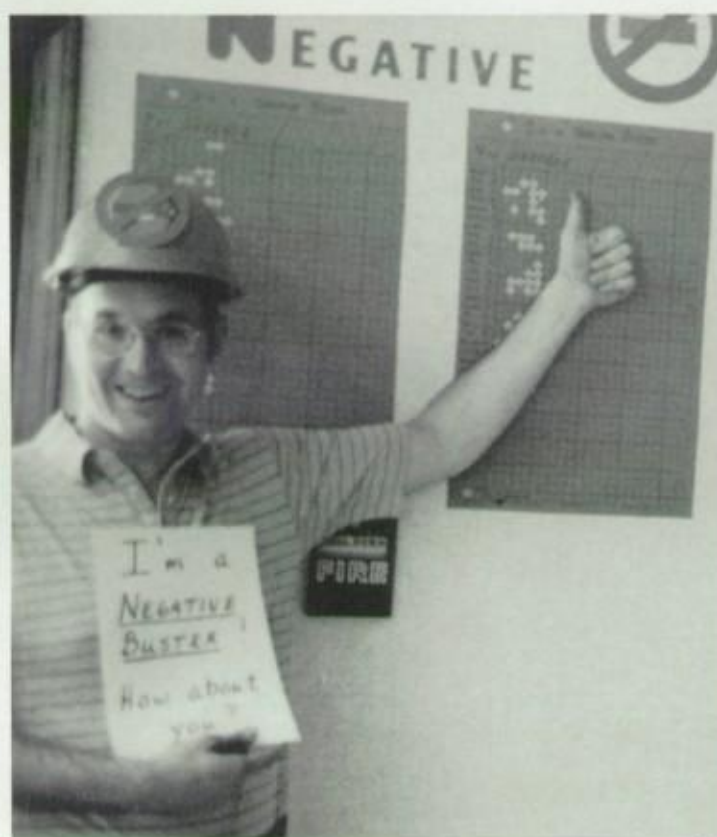

The Math Department at Albemarle High School continued to grow. It would have been hard to complete all the math courses offered. It seemed that every year new courses and advancements were made. Computer courses were enhanced this year when more computer printers were added to Albemarle High School's computer room. The standard math courses that had been taught for years were, as always, a challenge and offered consistency in the department. The Math Department, with its variety of faces, offered challenge, excitement, and advancement for all students involved in its programs.

Science betters the world

The Science Department strove to explain the world around us. In order to relate to the world more personally, students participated in the science fair, which highlighted the year. The fair, held March 15-18, featured many exciting projects with prizes awarded to the winners in each category. Mr. Curry, the chairman of the Science Department, and others in the department emphasized computers more in their classes.

Those who were able to participate in the assembly enjoyed a talk given by astronaut Harrison Schmidt from NASA. Whether it was Chemistry, Biology, Physics, or Earth Science, science classes were a vital part of our school and our lives.

English is for all

This year the English Department at Albemarle High School welcomed two new members to its staff. These two members were Mr. Alan Seaman and Mr. Dennis Shannon. These two were popular not only with their students but also with their fellow faculty members. New names taken on by other department members make it seem that two other new teachers had been added. However, it was only marriage that changed Mrs. Franklin's name to Mrs. Browning and Miss Critzer's to Mrs. Hughes. The English teachers applied the school's motto, "Nothing Less Than the Best", both in classroom and through successful participation in various contests and events, including creative Arts Week.

Fine arts — a better way

The Fine Arts classes gave students an escape from the ordinary "run of the mill" classes. They gave them a chance to expand their given talents and to put them to good use. The classes helped point out career opportunities. Some students took these classes just for fun while others wished to be involved in competitions and shows. Albemarle offered Band 2, Band 3, and Marching Band. All Marching Band members were in Band 3. Concert Choir and Women's Chorus allowed students to sing and perform in front of many different people. The Media Center also allowed students to expand their knowledge and learn more about books. It provided an atmosphere for study at SAP, during lunch, and before school. Fine Arts courses and access to the Media Center offered variety to what otherwise might have been a humdrum year.

Our world is broadened

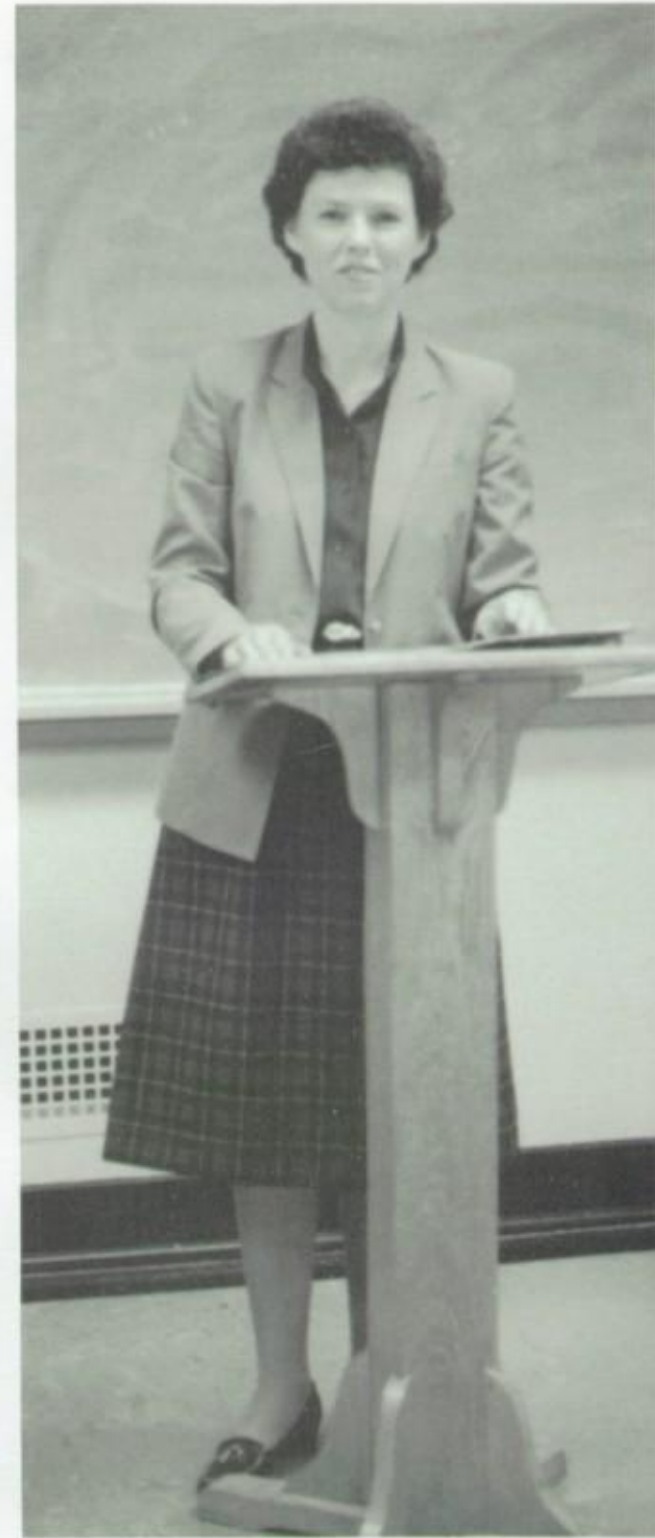

The Foreign Language Department again was an important part of the school curriculum. The students worked hard in French, Spanish, German, and Latin to learn both language and culture. We welcomed two teachers to this department. Mrs. Ruth Ferree, a French teacher, and Mrs. Ruth Trice, a German teacher, were very welcome additions. Hard work, club activities, and outstanding teachers contributed greatly to our excellent Foreign Language Department.

For a better future

Four new teachers were added to the Social Studies Department this year: Mr. David Riddick, Mrs. Bobbinette Hughes, Mr. Ed Griffith, and Mr. Joseph Pesti. Mr. Riddick taught U.S. and Va. History, Mr. Griffith taught U.S. and Va. History and Practical Law, Mr. Pesti taught World Geography, and Mrs. Hughes taught U.S. and Va. Government. These teachers were a very valuable addition to the Social Studies Department. The same courses were once again offered by the department this year. Freshmen and sophomores had to take either World History or World Geography. Juniors and seniors took both history and government. Economics, Practical Law, and Psychology were also offered as electives. Through much thought and preparation, the social studies teachers made learning very enjoyable.

Business for everyone

Many students learned more about available careers by taking advantage of the many business courses offered at Albemarle. These courses consisted of Typing, Bookkeeping, Stenography, General Business, Clerical Accounting, and a variety of computer classes. Computer Science was a favorite among students who wanted to learn more about a new career that was becoming very successful. Albemarle High School's Business Department helped prepare students in many ways and helped give them a broader view of the real world.

To better health

Physical Education and Health, now two individual classes, challenged freshmen and sophomores both physically and mentally. Physical Education allowed students to participate in team sports and to keep their bodies well conditioned. Kickball and foursquare were replaced with racketball, volleyball, and basketball. Health provided students with valuable knowledge about family life and emergency medical techniques. Sophomores often adopted a baby "egg" only to see their first responsibility "cracked". Physical Education and Health, although required, provided a fun and memorable time for underclassmen.

To better drivers

Walking down to the range was considered a drag, especially when it rained. You were assigned to a car and given instructions to follow. "Turn off the radio," was a common phrase from Coach Harrison. Coach Moore contributed by saying, "Don't forget your turn signal car #5." Taking range was the exciting part of Driver's Education. Classroom was an educational experience as well. Coach Lyons was in charge of the classroom part of Driver's Education. After completing the required courses, students looked forward to driving their friends around without being accompanied by an adult.

Students plan for future

The Career Education Program at Albemarle High School was designed to guide and help students plan classes as they looked towards future academics of the working world. With the variety of classes offered, students could plan to enter fields ranging from Industrial Arts to Home Economics. Through these classes students were provided with responsibilities that not only benefited the school but also helped students recognize their strengths and their weaknesses. This knowledge allowed these students to plan for the best possible future for themselves.

Skills gained at C-A Tech

The Charlottesville-Albemarle Technical Education Center provided area high school students with job skills necessary to succeed in later life. The building trades students actually built a house from ground up. Cosmetology students gained experience with their own customers and auto mechanics students made many repairs on many different kinds of cars. Those taking Data Processing, Practical Nursing, and Food Services gained first hand knowledge in their chosen fields. Area students were very fortunate to have this opportunity to learn these life-long skills.

A Fine English Tradition has Come to Virginia

Your Graduation from high school represents many old traditions. In the city where tradition is a way of life, "Bed and Breakfast" flourishes at the gracious English Inn of Charlottesville.

As the custom goes, all of our overnight guests enjoy a hearty, country breakfast on us. Our Piccadilly Pub has a daily happy hour from 5-7, delicious dinners and a sumptuous "Brunch with a Punch" Sundays, from 11-2. Fully equipped meeting and banquet facilities are available as well as a professional and knowledgeable staff to assist you. Please call us for reservations and information. Why not start your own tradition!

Elden,

Hey, Guess what? Only a few more weeks left. On that's right you have a whole year left. you wouldn't if you didn't have around Paul, you know he is a lead in June on you. Don't listen to him anymore; remember if it wasn't for that guy ~~was~~ you would be graduation with us, the Class of 85! Well I wish you all luck in your Senior because I only know your going to need it. Well do leave me and will never be get along. Will have a great future with Steve & Paul.

Muscles alone aren't enough

Even the toughest pro needs protection. Shoulder pads, hip pads, helmet—all help the player give the game all he's got.

And it's much the same off the playing fields, as well. Good health is important. But to get the most out of life, you also need protection. That's where life insurance from The Equitable comes in. It can give you the satisfaction of knowing that your family will be protected financially, if you die. And, while you live, it can provide a reserve of funds for emergencies, education, retirement. To find out more about an insurance program tailored to your specific protection needs, call your Equitable Agent, today.

Albemarle students honored

Not only are Albemarle students earning honors inside school, but they are also representing the school in the community as well. Two students, Kim Sprouse and Kim Bourne, competed in the Senior and Junior Miss Albemarle Pageants of 1984-1985.

Kim Sprouse, a seventeen year old AHS Junior sponsored by University Mahanes Florist, is our new Senior Miss Albemarle of 1984-85. The pageant was sponsored by Virginia Brenner, director of the Junior and Senior Virginia State Pageants.

Kim holds the titles of Miss Lexington 1983-84, Miss Virginia Springtime Sweetheart 1983, Miss Blue Ridge 1982-83, Miss Sweetheart 1982, Miss Shenandoah 1981-82, and Miss Pre-Teen Albemarle 1979-80. Kim has participated in pageants since she was twelve years old and intends to continue. She likes the traveling and meeting exciting people.

Kim Bourne, a fifteen year old sophomore at Albemarle, is our new Junior Miss Albemarle. Kim was sponsored by Marshall Hair Stylists. The pageant was held at Walker Middle School on June 3, 1984. This pageant carried Kim to the Junior Miss Virginia state pageant held in August. Kim also holds the title of Miss Blue Ridge. On November 25, 1984, Kim won the title of Senior Miss Christmas Queen.

The end of the year brought many visions of the future as Albemarle students began to prepare for the days to come. Underclassmen chose classes they would take the following year. Juniors thought of finally being at the top and ruling the school, while Seniors started counting the days until graduation and thought about what their lives would be like after high school.

1. Juniors Mike Morris and David Satira take time to talk with Sophomore Analisa Lage. 2. Andrea Muro and Jenny Cooper learn that studying is an important part of making good grades. 3. Getting ready for a big race is an AHS Cross Country member. 4. The hallways are a good place to socialize with your friends during SAP and lunch. 5. Many students use the cafeteria for other things besides eating lunch. Rodney Tate, Patrick Boyd, Lance Winston, Lisa Anderson, and Joe King enjoy talking with each other during SAP. 6. Using their time wisely during lunch are Donna Partin and Youngkeun An. 7. Junior Stephanie Patten shows her enjoyment over the present she received for Christmas. 8. The breezeway is the place to meet all your friends when the weather is nice. 9. Biology is usually taken in your sophomore year, but Chip Eubank doesn't seem to be enjoying it too much. 10. "Are you sure you're Nicolette?" asks Mike Shand. 11. Watching the game are Chris Duprey and Joe Beasley — "When will we get in?" they think.

1. Rashel Hammond studies intently in class. 2. Rodney Carter, Allen Agee, Glenn Carrington, Terrence Scott and Michael Scott "hang out" in the cafeteria. 3. John Harman tries to convince Julie Landel to give him a kiss. 4. Football players prepare to eat their fill before the next big game. 5. Enjoying each others' company are Rachel Henry and Matt Wood.

1. Anxious students are ready to begin class. 2. During half time, the band prepares to perform. 3. The breezeway brings back many thoughts of past years. 4. The AHS Volleyball team shows their support for the football team. 5. Roni Hanger, Linda Heath, Kristine Morris and Joanie Showalter are ready for the holiday season. 6. Reflections of the AHS football field bring back lots of happy memories.

1. Is this the real Tim Nye? 2. Todd Brown, Stephanie Patten, and Michelle Canada look over Nicole Pharr's homework assignment. 3. "Does he really know what he is doing?" thinks Annabel Thompson. 4. Showing the physical endurance involved in cross country running is Chris Coster. 5. During lunch, Cathy Heath, Page Newman, David Gallagher and Julie Goss catch up on the latest news. 6. Nerds Amy Bithell and Tim Walts look for twenty-five more pennies for a drink. 7. What are you looking at Jimmy Mooney? 8. This is the last season Mark Myrick will play for the red and blue. 9. A new sight at Albemarle were the drink machines which the students were permitted to use. 10. The computer in the library is used by Seniors Breck Bouchard and Timolee Tucker.

As the year came to a close, the class of 1985 could say "we made it," even after a new administration, new rules, and even new privileges. They left AHS on the road to success proud to say, "We made it nothing less than the best."
